3. The Charged Officer submitted his representation vide reference 6th read above, stating among others that as a disciplinary authority having applied his mind independently to the facts and circumstances of the case as well as the relevant rules, he was of the opinion that the enquiry conducted was not exhaustive and required a re-enquiry covering some more vital points of fact and law as submitted by the Charged Officer i.e Sri Md. Riyazuddin, Senior Assistant, O/o Deputy Inspector General, Registration & Stamps, Kurnool. He has stated that the action taken by him cannot be a basis of leveling a charge at all. 4. Government after careful examination of the Regular Enquiry Officer report and representation of the Charged Officer, felt that the Charged Officer, who has retired from service was well within his right as disciplinary authority to apply his mind independently.
